Family. Well loved and cared for 2 BR, 1 BA, 1346 sf home. Basically one-level living with just a couple of steps into the house from the attached garage. There is a lower level office and workshop. Sited on a .34 acre corner lot within the Taconic Shores community. Views of the Taconic Range mountains and forever wild farmland. A short distance to the private Main beach. The nearby town park has a playground, basketball court, tennis court, pickle ball/ice skating area (depending upon the season), free summer concerts every Saturday night. Cool down during the summer at Dad's Diner with soft serve ice cream. The Harlem Valley Rail Trail bicycle path, hiking at Bash Bish Falls, golf, music, farm-to-table restaurants, concerts are just some of the activities. Have to include Catamount Ski Mountain/Adventure Park with the USA's longest zip line. All this within about 2 hours from New York City and 2.5 from Boston. The Berkshires are the county right next door. Great Barrington is about 20 minutes away.

Built in 1958
