Set on a quiet dead end road in the hamlet of Copake Falls this double lot property has been sweetly manicured and set up for your calm enjoyment of the beautiful views. Time stops once you enter the grounds of this precious farmhouse expertly renovated to bring all the modern conveniences to a charming and character filled home. Upon entering the front door you and your guests will be greeted by the warmth only exposed beams and original wide plank wood flooring can evoke. The first floor has an open layout often desired but rarely achieved in homes of this era. The living room effortlessly flows into the dining room and beautiful kitchen that puts the Mt Washington views on display as you prepare your flowers and vegetables from your very own garden.
