Just a hop, skip and jump from the Village of Chatham, this 1930's home offers one story living. The house is very solid with a newer roof, good mechanicals and ample space. Updating will be desirable, but one could move right in. The house is set back nicely from the road and has a lovely front lawn and nice rear deck. There is an oversized one car garage and two storage sheds. In close proximity to groceries, farmers market, fine restaurants, vintage movie theatre, schools, county fair and a variety of shopping. 5 min to Chatham or Spencertown, 20 min to Hudson and Great Barrington.
