The Rail Trail is literally your backyard when you rent this barn which includes large loft style apartment that is as unique as it gets. Located on the original coal storage and distribution center from the early 1900's, it has history and character galore. There are 2 loft areas, plus 2 small rooms on first level that were used as a huge walk-in closet and an office. There is a washer and dryer, oil heat and hot water, and a small deck.
