Welcome to Lost Quarry Farm, an incredible 4BD 5BA ground-up new construction project from acclaimed Bone Hollow Studio. Lost Quarry Farm is your quintessential country farmhouse, set back from a quiet dirt road on five acres of lawn and woodlands with classic nine-over-nine windows and two brick chimneys lining the facade. Inside, historical details have been added to bring warmth and history to the new home. The main living space is anchored by a double sided wood burning fireplace set between the kitchen and living room, where you'll find 14 foot ceilings and a wall of giant, retractable glass doors that allow the outside in. The kitchen is the heart of the home with plenty of room to congregate around a large central island, room for an extra long dining table and loads of storage space. The magic is in the details here, with classic Carrara marble countertops, handmade tiles, deVOL task lighting and a beautiful mix of chrome and brass hardware. The Viking range is centrally located so the chef doesn't miss out on the fun, and there is an additional sink in the adjacent wet bar. The first floor library was designed to function as a first floor primary suite for those inclined, with an attached walk-in storage closet and a full bath. Upstairs, the primary suite features a gas fireplace, a light filled walk-in closet, an attached office and a beautifully appointed bath. Two additional bedrooms are both ensuite, allowing everyone space and privacy. A modern two-car garage has been attached to the house via a glass entryway, and upstairs you'll find a large, finished room that could function in many ways an office separate from the home, a playroom, a gym, dealers' choice. There is a screened in porch on the back of the house, a full house generator and the garage is EV-ready. All of the details have been meticulously thought out at Lost Quarry Farm, so you can move right in for the summer and enjoy. A membership at nearby Inness provides access to golf and pool, you're closing to hiking, skiing and restaurants and all that the Hudson Valley has to offer. Just 1.5h to NYC.
