Residential on 4 Acres

N/A, Hurley, NY

Welcome to the Fan Shell, built in 1973 by architect Donald Gellert. This unique three-bedroom, two-bathroom home is privately set on a quiet road in Hurley, New York. As you approach the property, you'll notice the remarkable dome shape of the house, adding a distinctive flair to the surrounding natural beauty and private setting.

You will immediately feel the warmth and comfort of the spacious living area, complete with large windows and sliders that allow natural light to flood the room. The circular design of the home provides a cozy and intimate atmosphere perfect for relaxing and entertaining guests. The home has many special features, including wide board flooring, a tubular wood-burning fireplace, custom wood cabinets, and a claw-foot tub. The Fan Shell has a perfect floor plan with two bedrooms and one bath on the main floor and a third bedroom with a full bath on the second floor. Recent updates include a newly renovated primary bath, crawlspace insulation, an updated whole-house water treatment system, and 240 volts near the driveway for an electric car charger. Set on 3.6 private acres, the property features a spacious deck, perfect for outdoor gatherings and scenic views of rock outcroppings and statuesque trees. The property is surrounded by lush vegetation, providing a tranquil atmosphere that is hard to find in today's fast-paced world. There is a stream that runs through the far end of the property. Located in the historic town of Hurley, this home offers the perfect balance of peaceful countryside living and easy access to the amenities of nearby hot spots like Woodstock and Kingston. This home is a quick drive to Onteora Lake, the Ashokan Reservoir, and the Rail Trail. Don't miss out on the opportunity to own this unique and special home in one of the most picturesque areas of New York.
