A splendid representative of Kingston's architectural history! Albany Ave is lined with these gems, and from time to time, one comes to market. Now is that time, and this 4 family provides that opportunity! Three large two bedroom units, and a very spacious one bedroom make up the spaces within. A glowing foyer features much original paneling and other woodwork to welcome the residents, and the apartments themselves feature that same sense of history. All utilities are individually metered, and the full basement provides plenty of storage for the residents, as well as a coin operated laundry, for their convenience. Ample off street parking is in the back, and a very spacious yard rounds off this opportune property.
