19 Church is a stately c1890 village Victorian in a prime location just steps from Chatham's charming Main street. The current artist-owners opted for a chic jet black exterior paint color, breaking away from the traditional Queen Anne style, yet all the beautiful original details remain: asymmetrical facade, deeply overhanging eaves, and the wide front porch. You'll find high ceilings and well-proportioned rooms & landings. Original details have been kept true to form, gorgeous built-ins and hardwood floors, and a wood stove has been added in the living room. Favorite spaces include an on-trend deconstructed kitchen sitting at the back of the first floor, and the main full bathroom on the second floor is quite dreamy with a soaking tub and walk-out balcony. The finished third floor is currently used as an art studio and offers flex space for a home office or additional living space. With three beds, three baths, there's plenty of room yet the home feels intimate. 2h to NYC, 20m to Amtrak in Hudson.

Built in 1890
