Sited in the bright center of three adjoining parcels, and surrounded by lush forest is this tastefully appointed, well maintained three-bedroom cape with plenty of room to spread out. Take in the beautifully manicured grounds, and impeccable stone retaining wall along with the scent of peonies in the spring that welcome you to the front entrance. The convenient mudroom includes ample space to hang your winter coats; your feet will stay toasty warm with its radiant heat. while relaxing with friends. Upstairs youâ€™ll find the generously sized primary bedroom and en suite bathroom with a soaking tub framed below a large window, complete with a tiled shower. The loft makes for a great sitting area or office that overlooks the living area below. Plenty of storage above in the loft accessed by a sliding ladder.
