Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Kingston, NY

Step into a living masterpiece in historic Uptown Kingston, where this distinguished home, crafted by Tobias Van Buren in 1730, stands as a testament to enduring elegance. Echoes of its rich past resonate throughout. It proudly holds the title of Van Buren's largest Uptown creation. Later became the residence of Major Huyck, a pivotal figure in the War of 1812 Army recruitment. The allure of this residence extends beyond its rich history to embrace contemporary comforts, featuring a brick patio, sweet fenced in back yard and a covered back porch that beckon you to enjoy the outdoors. Inside, the ambiance is enriched by spacious front center hall, high ceilings, large dining and living room. Beautiful beams and wide board floors, seamlessly merging timeless charm with modern living. Discover built-ins in the kitchen, primary bedroom, dining room, and living room—a harmonious blend of history and sophistication awaits. Don't miss the only Stone on the market in Uptown Kingston. Authenticity abounds with original hardware, and three fireplaces, creating a living tapestry of centuries gone by within its spacious rooms. Immerse yourself in a home where history lives on in every carefully preserved detail.

Built in 1730
