Big style thatâ€™s a short walk from everything: This updated brick mid-century ranch sits on an oversized lot with a leafy and park-like backyard, but itâ€™s in-town and only minutes by foot from all the restaurants, shopping and other attractions of Uptown Kingstonâ€™s Stockade District, one of the Hudson Valleyâ€™s hottest neighborhoods. The house, designed with its main living space and 2 big bedrooms all on one sunny main level, features a newly renovated kitchen with new appliances and slate floor, a beam-ceilinged living room, and a stunning 20-foot long sunroom with a panoramic view of the lush backyard. Downstairs in the finished walk-out lower level is an office, another room that has traditionally been used as a third bedroom, and a large additional unfinished space for storage. Thereâ€™s plenty of off-street parking, and system updates include a high-efficiency, gas-fueled Navien boiler for heat and hot water. The style throughout is fresh and sophisticated â€œmodern cabin,â€• which perfectly complements the leafy setting for a retreat-like vibe that sets this apart from most Uptown houses.
