Welcome to the Hartwell house of Spencer Corner. A home oozing with charm and history. A birth date that predates the birth of America this home circa 1769 offers the sense you have time traveled to 200 years ago with big views across the street of open fields and Winchell Mountain. Enjoy sunsets from your front yard as it sets behind the Taconic Mountains. Enter the home from the front door, a piece of living history. Made to protect the homeowners during the Revolution from intruders. Past the sturdy red door lies the dining room with beamed ceilings and hardwood floors. Also tucked in a corner is a little cupboard underneath the stairs. The living room offers a comfortable amount of space with antique wood detail, and views of Spencer Corner. The kitchen offers a large window allowing light to stream in, and open concept shelving. The primary on the first floor provides easy living with ample light, hardwood floors and a full bathroom with a walk in shower next door. Another structure connected by a carport or covered entertaining area could be used as a office, workspace, art/yoga studio or simply as storage. Enjoy spectacular sunset views of fields and Taconic Mountains from this property. An outdoor enthusiast delight: close to Rudd pond for swimming, Harlem Valley Rail Trail for walking and bike rides, and the Appalachian trail for hiking. Just a short drive to Catamount Mountain for skiing. This darling antique is just a few minutes from the center of Millerton,

NY. which offers movies, dining, antiquing, farmer's market and so much more. NYC is two hours by car and Metro North train service just 20 minutes away.
