Welcome to Deck House. The iconic Mid Century 4BD 4BA home is sited back on 11+ acres of meadow, wildflower fields, trails and forest with a fenced organic garden, a vintage-inspired pool house and a gunite pool. All just minutes to the charming village of Millbrook. Founded in Southern New England in 1949, the Deck House company is now eponymously known as The Original Mid-Century Home, and has gathered an international cult following. There are only a handful of these homes in the Hudson Valley, and even less that have been so meticulously restored and fine-tuned. The iconic design features post & beam construction, the gable ends fitted with large panes of glass and generous overhangs a la Frank Lloyd Wright, mahogany accents and vaulted cedar ceilings. The current owners have balanced this iconic mid century aesthetic with many new upgrades including new windows and skylights that allow light to flood the space. A gorgeous new custom kitchen features a 12ft long central island, Miele smart appliances and handmade Japanese tiles. You'll find four bedrooms, two ensuite, the first on the main floor with a private deck and pastoral views of wildflower fields, and the second on the upper level. This large, ethereal primary suite has been completely transformed with a spa-like bathroom with double vanity and shower heads. With walls of windows on three sides the room feels serene, calming and spacious. The lower level of the home features another bedroom and a second fireplace, the first being in the central great room on the main level. Over the last several years the home has been transformed with a new roof, new mahogany decking, the list goes on. The pool house has been recently renovated with playful, vintage punches, the 2BR unit has a large family room with vaulted ceilings and a full kitchen. Deck House is both architecturally significant and wonderfully livable, the comfortable design is what has made these homes perpetually sought after. 1.5h to NYC and just 15m to the train.
