3 Bedroom, 2.50 Bathroom, 3,068 sqft
Residential on 222 Acres

N/A, West Kill, NY

Rarely can one still find such a stunning, and large acreage, country estate with several picturesque barn buildings, meadows, trails, mountain views and a glorious swimming pond. Totaling over 220 acres, on two deeds, and located in an area of tranquility and minimal vehicular traffic. Spruceton Valley is a hidden mecca in Greene County and you'll no doubt understand why, once you see for yourself. The kitchen and breakfast room have glorious views looking out over meadows and the large clear pond. And, the living room with wood burning fireplace has a picture window that frames the Catskills, through every season... like landscape paintings. The home is gracious, well maintained and comfortable. It was occupied full time until last year, and has not been majorly renovated in decades. It's got loads of charm and character in the details, and has room for its next owner to create their vision of 21st century living. For guests there is a two bedroom, one bath apartment over the garage with potential for a caretaker or additional income. And, if you have horses, the barn is ready to move them in and start exploring the fields and trails as soon as you wish. Don't miss this opportunity to own your own significant piece of the Catskills. Fewer and fewer parcels of this size are ever available. The location is accessible to skiing, tubing hiking and the charming hamlets of Woodstock, Phoenicia, Prattsville and others. The scenery nearby is stunning and why the region has been such a draw for those seeking an escape from the city.
