Rental on 0 Acres

N/A, Hudson, NY

This important 1880's building built by Cornelius Evans, a Hudson brewer, businessman and Mayor, has been carefully and consciously renovated by the owner architect as contemporary living spaces. This top floor space in this NO PETS building is reminiscent of a Parisian apartment and is bathed in great light with views on both Warren Street and to the North. Private, security system, back entrance including an off street parking space. Efficient, eat in kitchen with dishwasher, new stacked washer and drier, central air and filtration system for air dedicated to this space, Many ceiling angles lend an artistic feeling to all rooms. Unique architectural windows with catbird views in all directions.

Built in 1880
