N/A, Hudson, NY

Welcome to The Juliet House. Located at 453 E Allen Street, in historic Hudson New York. Built during the turn of the century in a Victorian style, this home has been elegantly restored and filled with original historic details like stained glass and fireplace mantels. The modern renovation includes central air conditioning, a chef kitchen, plenty of storage and closet space, beautiful natural light throughout, tall ceilings and hardwood flooring. The yard is one of the best features, featuring a sun deck and blue stone pathways in a private setting. This home has great value and is truly unique. It is the perfect combination of modern amenities and historic charm. The location is ideal for those who want to be close to town, but still have a private setting. Come and take a look for yourself and you will see why this home has so much to offer.

Built in 1902
