A charming village house in the victorian Italianate style, perched on a quiet side street just off Main Street. The double verandas are a special feature offering long distant views from the upper level. High ceilings and large windows elevate each room to a level of comfort and grace often found only in larger houses. A soft color palette inside adds to the sense of calm along with many other lovely touches created by the current owner. A ground floor bedroom is perfect for guests and the formal dining room will find much use as it overlooks the vest pocket rear garden through a full glass door. This is very much a house for indoor-outdoor entertaining. Come take a look and see this surprising property in the heart of Catskill Village. All just minutes from Hudson and the Amtrak Station as well as the vast Catskill Mountain Park lands.
