Welcome to The Pippin House, a historical gem crafted in 1876. Immerse yourself in a world of timeless charm with original moldings and doors, basking in natural light. Nestled in a delightful and quiet spot just a brief walk from Warren Street, you'll find yourself strolling to Oakdale Lake during your leisure time. Just a few steps away, the vibrant outdoor farmers market beckons, and your furry friend will adore the nearby dog park. As you enter, you're welcomed by a handsome original curvy staircase with intricate wood details. Inside, hardwood floors lead you into an open living area with a beautiful bay window, seamlessly merging dining and living spaces. The kitchen is a showcase of designer features and exposed ceilings, offering ample storage and prep space. Three closeted bedrooms and two renovated bathrooms provide the space you need to live in harmony with friends and family. An upstairs bonus space accommodates work-from-home flexibility while first floor laundry offers convenience. Begin your day with a cup of coffee on the gracious front porch adorned with historic corbels. The double-lot affords a generous yard that is perfect for outdoor gatherings, complemented by a charming mudroom and back deck. Your private driveway ensures off-street parking. At the Pippin House, you'll experience the perfect fusion of history and modernity. Your dream home is ready and waiting for you!
