A masterfully imagined, minimally modern take on an elegant post and beam country home with a playful, warm, inviting vibe will fill you with joy, while the architect's use of light, space, and flow will captivate. The combination of high-end materials and mechanicals, quality construction methods and owners who have properly maintained this jewel, will make you feel like you are purchasing a brand new home. Recent upgrades include a whole house generator, under counter kitchen cabinets, California Closet systems, Sonos, and "smart" Lutron light and shade control. A few highlights include a back deck with a wood burning fireplace, a telescoping sliding door to the deck which brings the outside in, and a voluminous main living space for you to spread out. A property as outstanding as this needs an equally impressive location. Positioned in an area of high end homes, close to the Massachusetts border, creates a jumping off point to thoroughly enjoy this very special and unique region. Your go to town for shopping, dining, movies, books and more will be Chatham and Lenox with Tanglewood and more culture is a short drive away.
