Residential on 1 Acres

Hillside Acres, Kingston, NY

Minutes to Uptown Kingston and the NYS Thruway, this meticulously maintained Colonial on a park-like lot, is close to all the action of one of the Hudson Valley's hottest commercial districts but offers remarkable seclusion and privacy, too. Surrounded by woods, the house provides seamless indoor-outdoor living with a bright updated kitchen opening to a cozy den and a wonderful screened back porch with adjacent deck, and a lush and partially fenced-in yard beyond. Inside, the look is clean and bright, with newly refinished hardwood floors on both levels, a newly renovated spa-like en-suite bathroom in the primary bedroom, an additional full bath upstairs and a half bathroom downstairs. The full basement and 2-car garage offer ample storage space, and system updates are extensive, including a Generac 20 kW whole-house generator fueled continuously by natural gas, new gutters (2022), a replacement roof (2013), central air-conditioning (2012), and a new boiler (2008) and hot-water heater (2020). This is the rare house that puts you close to the all the charms of Uptown Kingston, including restaurants, shopping and NYC bus service, but with all the best features of modern living, too, only 2 hours from midtown Manhattan.
