The Secret Garden House is a unique property on a quiet side street in the riverfront village of Catskill. This Victorian gem has been redesigned by the artist owners into a respite of tranquility with book-lined rooms and a tiled country kitchen. Two full baths, one on the ground floor with a brilliant soaking tub, the other, on the second floor has a lovely shower. The cozy front parlor is open to the original staircase and the formal dining room leads into the large eat-in kitchen. A side porch overlooks the enclosed garden of clipped boxwood and tiered beds of gorgeous plantings. Follow the descending steps through this magical space and arrive at the glass fronted artist studio, formerly a two-car garage. Surprises await around every corner of this property, located in the Catskill Arts District just steps from The Lumberyard Dance Center.
