Land on 20 Acres

N/A, Copake, NY

Looking for a large parcel of land that is open for building, farming or recreating upon? This 20 +/- Acre parcel offers plenty of area that is flat and mostly cleared, (currently used for farming), with a small stream and lightly wooded buffered area at the rear. With 360' of Road frontage on a town maintained road, where electric is available, and zoned Rural residential, the property offers the potential for subdivision as well; think about two home sites for those that wish to build near to one another or build your dream and sell the balance, (subject to Town Approval). Lots of potential here, a rural setting, with distant views to the East!
